FISCAL ANALYSIS

Assumptions:

1. The bill is contingent upon an appropriation of at least $400,000 for legislators to be used for education, travel, and communications with constituents. Although the bill creates a state special revenue fund for this purpose, it does not identify a revenue source for money to flow into the fund. It is unknown when this appropriation would be made and subsequently when the bill would go into effect. Therefore, no fiscal impact is shown.
